

High School Course Credit Pre-Approval Form

for International Connections Academy

The student listed below is taking a high school-level course at International Connections Academy (iNaCA) and would like to confirm that his/her school will grant credit if the student successfully completes the course and presents an official iNaCA transcript to the school.

International Connections Academy is a private K-12 school fully accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools (MSA). International Connections Academy's courses are developed around national standards. They are the equivalent of one semester, cover a uniform 90 hours (sometimes referred to as Carnegie Units), and are worth one-half credit. Short course descriptions are available at
